Nurturing children. Supporting families. Empowering communities.

Nobody builds well-being alone. And even strong families need strong support systems.

That's why for over a century, Children's Bureau of Southern California has been strengthening at-risk families and communities so that children can thrive, free from maltreatment and other forms of adversity. Our programs provide families with the resources necessary to ensure stable relationships, physical and emotional health, and economic security.

Feeding over 850,000 food-insecure Angelenos, with a strong focus on children, struggling families, and seniors living in economically disadvantaged neighborhoods with the least access to fresh, nutritious food.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS

There are many ways for businesses to give, including cash gifts, food drives, online fundraising, point-of-purchase fundraising, matching gifts, sponsorships of mobile pantries, and naming opportunities for our new food hub, known as the "Sharehouse." Contact Val Parker at (562) 435-3577 or vparker@foodbankofsocal.org

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

We love both community and corporate volunteers! We can accommodate groups as small as four and as large as 20. Our volunteers help distribute food at mobile pantries, organize food drives, or sort and package food in the warehouse. Great team-building opportunity.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

- Emergency Food Distribution Program: Every dollar = four meals
- Mobile Food Pantry Program: Sponsorships from $2,500 to $25,000
- Family Food Boxes: Every $300 = 10 food boxes to tide families of four over for the weekend.
- Senior Brown Bag: $30 per Senior Brown Bag containing 25 pounds of nutritious food.
- The Sharehouse Food Hub: Building naming opportunities, equipment and room sponsorship.

GOALS FOR 2024

- Provide hungry children, families, and seniors with highly nutritious food in neighborhoods where it is easy to access.
- Prepare for opening of our new "Sharehouse," a community food hub that supports the food rescue and distribution efforts of the grassroots food network so that more food goes out to the community and less goes to landfills.
- Double mobile pantry program by deploying four mobile food pantry trucks deep into neighborhoods without easy access to fresh, nutritious food.
