Trever Acers is the founder and managing director of Objective, Investment Banking & Valuation, a leading middle-market investment banking and valuation firm. With over 20 years of experience in investment banking, acquisitions and strategic advisory, Acers has built a firm that consistently delivers exceptional M&A outcomes for business owners. He is a leader in the firm’s Technology and Consumer practices, specializing in sell-side M&A transactions. Before founding Objective, Acers held leadership roles at TGG Capital, The Oxford Investment Group and Passage Venture Capital Partners, honing his expertise in private equity investments, financial consulting and post-acquisition integration. Currently, his responsibilities include driving business development, overseeing M&A execution, and guiding clients through tailored exit strategies.

RAUL ANAYA

*President and Co-Head of Business Banking;
Greater Los Angeles Market President
Bank of America*

Raul Anaya is president and co-head of Business Banking, one of Bank of America’s (the nation’s top small business lender as of September 2024) eight lines of business and is a member of the company’s executive management team. Anaya co-leads a nationwide team that serves 11 million business owner clients and more than 3.4 million start-up to mid-sized businesses with annual revenues up to $50 million. In his role, Anaya also oversees local bankers working and living in over 200 communities across the US, serving businesses that fuel local economies and the growth of the country. Following the January wildfires, Anaya was asked to oversee the bank’s comprehensive response and rebuilding efforts for greater Los Angeles, dedicated to addressing the end-to-end, long-term needs of clients, employees, and local communities and now leads these efforts.

JENNIFER AUDETTE

*President / CEO
POLAM FCU*

Jennifer Audette has worked within the credit union industry for 30 years. She has been honored as a nonprofit executive by State Senator Anthony Portantino, recognized as a California Credit Union advocate of the year, and named one of only 20 nationwide to be an American Credit Union ‘Rock Star.’ POLAM is a boutique credit union with a field of membership open to anyone who lives in Southern California and makes a one-time donation of $20 to the Polish American Congress. President and CEO of POLAM, Audette is the first non-Polish employee at a Polish Credit Union. When she isn’t volunteering at Polish events, she assists with mock interviews at her local middle schools and high schools in her area.

PAULA BAHAMON

*Senior Vice President, Community Development
Mission Valley Bank*

Paula Bahamon has spent her career specializing in the support and growth of small to mid-sized businesses, and currently serves as senior vice president of community development at Mission Valley Bank. She has extensive commercial banking experience, specializing in small business, financial literacy, business development and client relationship management. A results-oriented banker with a comprehensive range of management skills, Bahamon also serves as a trusted advisor, supporting financial literacy and community outreach for business owners. She was instrumental in Mission Valley Bank’s designation as a Community Development Financial Institution, enabling the bank to provide more targeted and beneficial services to underserved areas. She also helped tailor a program that addresses the core financial competencies business owners need to navigate the complex economic landscape.

CHRIS BANDOVERIS

*Principal
Centerpoint M&A Advisors*

Chris Bandouveris has advised business buyers and sellers in smaller middle-market merger and acquisition transactions since 1992. Prior to co-founding CenterPoint in 2003, he was president of a boutique middle-market investment bank, where he managed M&A transactions for over 10 years. Bandouveris has completed 165 M&A transactions in several industries including mobile radiology, food processing, in-home care, industrial manufacturing, medical devices, silicon wafer healthcare services, construction equipment rental, safety supplies and automotive aftermarket parts manufacturing. He assisted one buy-side client, Rental Service Corporation, in completing 41 acquisitions throughout the US which allowed the company to go public and ultimately sell to a strategic buyer, Atlas Copco. He also represented NextMedia in 12 acquisitions of outdoor advertising billboard companies throughout the US.

CHRIS BARON

President, Commercial and Community Banking Banc of California

Chris Baron has a special talent for identifying key trends and predicting market developments, which he uses to help Banc of California stay ahead of industry shifts. He leads a team of 650 professionals that deliver top-tier lending and treasury management solutions to clients, which range from small businesses and middle-market companies to some of the largest real estate owners and developers in the nation. Following Banc of California’s 2023 merger with PacWest Bancorp (PWB), Baron was promoted from president of the Los Angeles Region to his current position as president of commercial and community banking. Prior to PWB, he led the public finance for MUFG Union Bank in the western US and led the education and nonprofit division nationally at US Bank.

RICARDO BARRAGAN

*Managing Director and Market Manager
J.P. Morgan*

With over 35 years at J.P. Morgan, Rick Barragan has demonstrated exceptional leadership across various economic cycles, significantly enhancing the firm’s presence in the Los Angeles area. His career began in 1988 in the Global Credit Risk Management Group, followed by a pivotal role in the American Depositary Receipt Group, where he fostered international client relationships. Transitioning to the Equity Derivatives Group, Barragan excelled as head of sales for the Equity Finance Desk, serving institutional investors globally. Currently, as managing director and market manager at J.P. Morgan Private Bank, he leads a team delivering tailored wealth strategies. Barragan’s commitment to community service is evident through his board memberships and co-sponsorship of The Fellowship Initiative, supporting young men from low-income communities.

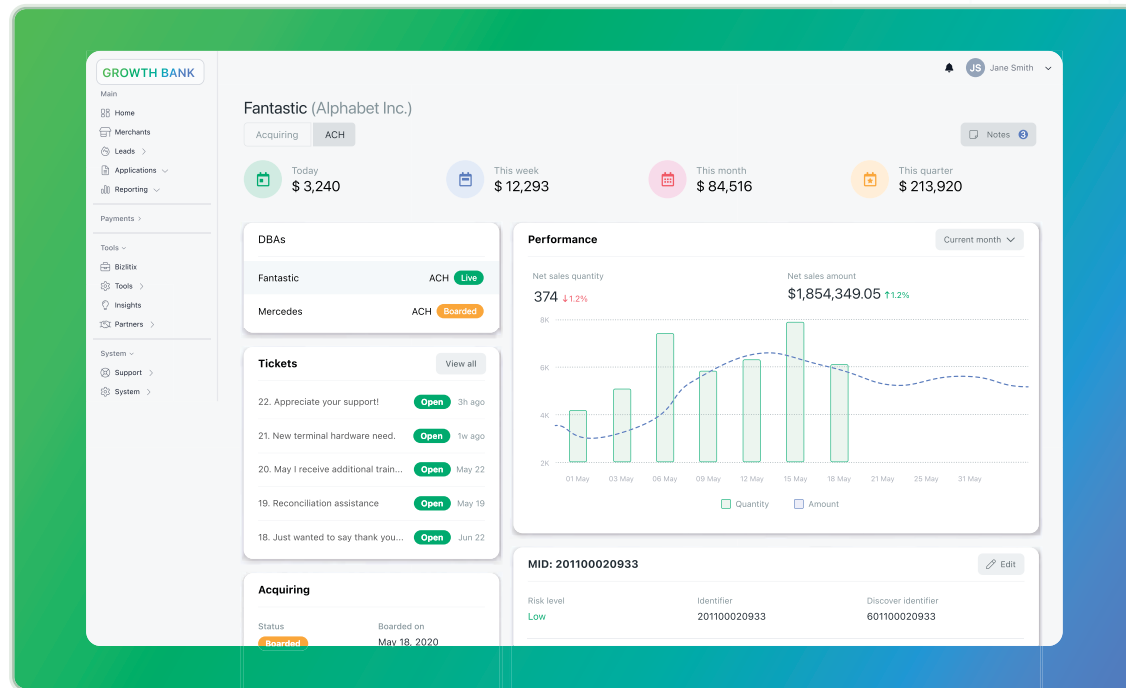

SCOTT BEREJIKIAN

*Principal
CenterPoint M&A Advisors*

Scott Berejikian has 28 years of M&A experience and has transactions in 35 states and Canada. He is a principal at CenterPoint M&A Advisors, a middle-market investment bank focused on representing buyers and sellers of privately held businesses. The firm’s merger & acquisition transactions range from $10 to $100 million in value. Berejikian works with sell-side clients — typically entrepreneurs — who are preparing for retirement, business owners taking advantage of favorable M&A market conditions, or investors and entrepreneurs who have other interests they would like to pursue. He has worked with clients in several industries including industrial manufacturing, automotive aftermarket parts manufacturing, home health care, distribution, roofing products, semiconductor metrology systems, aerospace, consumer services, healthcare services, safety products and food processing.

DEAN BERESFORD
*SVP, Commercial Banking
(Formerly U.S. Bank)*

With a deep-rooted passion for banking, Dean Beresford has steadily climbed the ranks of several leading financial institutions, demonstrating exceptional leadership and strategic vision. Beresford saw firsthand early in his career how banking could change lives, creating opportunities, supporting communities and building generational wealth. This further shaped his purpose: fostering economic inclusion and driving meaningful relationships. Beginning in frontline banking, he quickly advanced through roles in risk management, corporate finance, and executive leadership, ultimately shaping the success of major financial institutions.

Most recently, Beresford led the U.S. Bank team managing relationships with middle-market companies ($25 million - $1 billion in revenue) across diverse industries in Los Angeles, overseeing business development, client selection, and relationship deepening efforts, driving tailored financial solutions and portfolio growth.

DAVID BIELAWA
*Executive Vice President & Chief Audit Executive
East West Bank*

David Bielawa has been in the financial service field in risk assurance for 42 years. He began his career with the OCC as national bank examiner for 17 years. He was also the chief auditor at City National Bank for 17 years before moving to East West Bank as their chief audit executive in 2017.

At East West Bank, Bielawa is responsible for the internal audit and credit review functions. He is a frequent speaker at both the Institute of Internal Auditors and the Information Systems Audit and Control Association Los Angeles Chapters. He has spoken on a variety of auditing related topics including emerging risks, auditing challenges, career development and risk assessment.

KARL BRIER
*Managing Director
Cappello Global, LLC*

Trusted advisor and partner to his clients, Karl Brier has assisted companies in going public through IPO preparation and has helped companies restructure and avoid liquidation. He also has a track record of successfully helping companies navigate the dot com bust, the financial crisis and COVID.

Earlier in his career, Brier focused on specialty practices, such as catering to Japanese corporations, venture lending to tech startups and lending to retailers. Recently Brier transitioned to investment banking from commercial banking and asset-based lending. This successful transition is due in a large part to the trusting relationships that he has developed throughout his career. Brier has been an active member of various industry organizations such as the Turnaround Management Organization and SFNet.

GREG BROWN
*CEO
California Lithuanian Credit Union*

Greg Brown started his career as a part-time teller over 35 years ago, and now serves as CEO at California Lithuanian Credit Union (CLCU). His early career allowed him to cultivate skills in all facets of operations and he quickly established a strong operational background and exceptional people skills, which he further developed in progressive leadership roles as vice president of consumer lending at BMO, senior vice president at Golden 1 Credit Union, and chief lending officer at Cabrillo Credit Union.

During his tenure as CEO, Brown has developed major improvements in IT security, established an HR function, steadily increased the company's loan portfolio, improved the commercial loan origination process, and developed and launched new products to CLCU.

ELSA R. BURTON
*Senior Vice President; Regional Manager Los Angeles,
Middle Market Banking
Fifth Third Bank*

Elsa R. Burton joined the Southern California leadership team of Fifth Third Bank in early 2022, bringing over 25 years of experience in the Los Angeles market. As the Los Angeles regional manager, Burton is responsible for building and leading a team of Middle Market bankers and driving growth in the greater LA area. Her team is focused on developing and maintaining relationships with both privately-owned and private equity-owned middle market clients, supporting clients' growth with financing for working capital, growth capital, acquisitions and leveraged buyouts.

Burton was previously group head and SVP for Bank Leumi USA for six years, managing a team of relationship managers to meet clients' needs and exceed their expectations, foster growth and enable new opportunities.

DAVID CAMERON
Executive Vice President; Head of Consumer Banking City National Bank

David Cameron is executive vice president and head of Consumer Banking at City National Bank and is a member of the company's Executive Leadership Team and Senior Management Team. He is responsible for overseeing the bank's branch network, as well as its consumer & preferred banking, small business banking, community banking, and mortgage & residential lending segments. He also leads City National's commitment to fair lending and the Community Reinvestment Act.

Cameron joined City National in 2005 as an associate business development officer. He spent 10 years growing his career and leading colleagues in Commercial Banking before becoming the senior vice president in charge of business banking in 2016. Under his leadership, City National has become one of the nation's top lenders for Small Business Administration 504 loans.

ALEXANDER CAPPELLO
*Chief Executive Officer
Cappello Global, LLC*

Alexander Cappello started his finance industry career and founded his investment bank while still attending classes pursuing his bachelor's degree at the University of Southern California after honing the necessary skills of fortitude, hard work and dedication, having been born and raised on an agricultural farm in Bakersfield California. Cappello Global in its many derivations over the last 51 years has become the number one cross-border transactions investment bank on the west coast, where it has remained a staple of independence, offering non-conflicted primarily financing and mergers and acquisition services for its diverse client base.

Cappello has been a guest lecturer at USC, UCLA and Harvard business schools, as well as numerous international universities and business conferences, sharing his deep life lessons and business experiences.

GERARD CAPPELLO
*Managing Director
Cappello Global, LLC*

Starting his investment banking career in 1985, Gerard Cappello has executed hundreds of financings and M&A transactions spanning over 60 countries and 40 years. Areas of focus have covered renewable and carbon-based energy, agriculture, consumer products, healthcare, biomed/biotech, industrials, manufacturing and distribution, among others. He has operated several broker-dealers, serving as principal (Series 24), focused on private placements of debt and equity, EB-5, and PIPEs for numerous public companies.

Cappello is currently responsible for generation of new business as well as production, processing and placements with institutional capital, private equity firms and family offices. In addition to his broker-dealer activity, he has founded and operated several companies, including operations involving real estate development, consulting and sustainable energy systems (design and installation).

Tiffany Hughes began her career in foreign exchange on the trading floor — a fast-paced, high-energy environment where she thrived amid the intensity. She quickly built her own book of clients, setting the foundation for a career that would evolve alongside the industries she served. Her early years were spent in Silicon Valley, working with middle-market firms, growing alongside them as the sector transformed. As her expertise deepened, Hughes expanded her focus, working with money managers, and eventually, Fortune 500 corporations. She became a trusted advisor in managing foreign currency risk, optimizing foreign denominated cash flows and developing strategies to mitigate financial risk. With the PNC's expansion into LA, Hughes saw a unique opportunity to play an entrepreneurial role in shaping the bank's market presence.

New Omni Bank, National Association

Since rejoining New Omni Bank management team in 2018, Kimberly Schugart has taken on crucial responsibilities, from financial planning and analysis to strategic planning and corporate finance, positioning the bank for sustainable growth and resilience. Schugart secured nearly $40 million through the US Treasury’s Emergency Capital Investment Program in 2022, empowering New Omni Bank to increase lending to underserved, low- and moderate-income businesses and consumers. In 2023, Schugart capitalized on market volatility surrounding the US debt ceiling to restructure the bank’s investment portfolio, doubling profits on $80 million in US Treasuries by securing high yields on these fixed-income securities. Schugart recently closed a deal acquiring $5 million in consumer loan debt at a fixed rate of 8.125%, ensuring high returns in a declining rate environment.

AN TRAN
SVP; Managing Director, PNC Public Finance
PNC Bank

An Tran has spent his entire career with PNC Bank, joining immediately after college in the wake of the 2008 financial crisis, as PNC was expanding through its acquisition of National City Corporation. This pivotal moment in the bank’s history gave Tran early exposure to high-level client interactions, allowing him to develop his expertise as a young relationship manager in public finance.

Tran built his career in the east coast, providing tailored financial solutions for public-facing entities. He relocated to Los Angeles in 2022 following the bank’s acquisition of BBVA USA, taking on the responsibility of expanding PNC’s public finance presence. His work has played a key role in financing critical infrastructure projects, including transportation, utilities, affordable housing, government complexes and education.

VINCENT VANACORE
SVP; Market Manager
CalPrivate Bank

Vincent Vanacore began his career at a community bank as a teller, learning quickly and excelling at top-tier service. Management quickly identified him as a potential leader in the industry, and he was offered an opportunity to learn relationship management from top bankers in the South Bay. Vanacore quickly grew from apprentice to leader, being recruited to CalPrivate Bank as a market leader in 2020.

Vanacore has been a top-producing banker for his entire tenure with CalPrivate Bank, leading his team to profitable growth. He approaches each relationship as a true partner, taking time to learn the language of each business he banks, quickly identifying opportunities where his expertise and network can help his clients’ businesses grow.

ROBERT VILLASEÑOR
VP, Business Banking Specialist
First Citizens Bank

Robert Villaseñor’s career in banking began over 45 years ago when he started as a teller while supporting his wife and two children and furthering his education. His dedication and perseverance allowed him to climb the corporate ladder, ultimately becoming a respected business banking specialist with a focus on nonprofit organizations.

In his current role, Villaseñor plays a vital part in community development and outreach, ensuring that nonprofits receive the financial guidance and support they need to thrive. He leads with a hands-on approach, consistently meeting with clients and identifying both strengths and areas that need attention to ensure businesses can optimize their financial operations and long-term success. Beyond traditional banking services, Villaseñor provides education on financial sustainability, governance and development.

SUBBU VISWANATHAN
Managing Director; Head of Franchise Finance
SMBC MANUBANK

Subbu Viswanathan heads the Franchise Finance vertical for SMBC MANUBANK, managing a $600 million franchise portfolio. Since joining the bank, he has been instrumental in growing its Franchise Finance book of business across some of the most well-known Quick Service Restaurant brands. He has successfully expanded the bank’s franchise footprint from a regional lender to a nationwide lender, helped his team achieve double-digit portfolio growth, and achieved an all-time high for loan bookings and profitability.

Viswanathan began his career as a credit analyst in 1998. He worked in credit roles supporting various business verticals. With a keen interest in franchising, he helped establish and grow the vertical at various financial institutions from 2008 to 2022.

BANKING ICON HONOREE

SHERRY CEFALI

Managing Director, Transaction Opinions
Duff & Phelps Opinions Practice of Kroll, LLC

When Sherry Cefali started her career at Houlihan Lokey back in 1986, there were almost no women in this field. In fact, Cefali was the second professional woman to join Houlihan Lokey since their inception. She made her way up the ranks and by the time she left the firm in 1990, she was a vice president in the organization.

Today, Cefali is a managing director in the Duff & Phelps Opinions Practice of Kroll, LLC. In addition, she is a member of the firm's Fairness and Solvency Opinion Senior Review Committee. She has now been with that firm for over 30 years, advising companies and boards, rendering fairness opinions and solvency opinions and determining valuations of companies and securities. When she joined in July 1990, she also found out she was expecting her first child only weeks after she joined the firm! Cefali continued to build her network in the Los Angeles community and was promoted to senior vice president and then to managing director in 2000. Cefali was asked to head the Los Angeles office of Kroll. She established a new Century City office location for the team and started the OneLA team, comprised of volunteers in the Kroll LA office to give back to the community in LA.

Known as a leader in providing transaction opinions in REIT and real estate transactions, Cefali also serves as part of the steering committee of Nareit's Dividends Through Diversity and Inclusion initiative to promote the recruitment, inclusion and advancement of women and other diverse groups in the industry.

COMMUNITY IMPACT AWARD HONOREE

DAVID M. WEISS

Senior Vice President & Regional Manager
Commercial Bank of California

David Weiss is a prime example of an impactful banker inside and outside of the bank. With a long and successful career spanning several decades, he has consistently demonstrated the qualities of leadership, expertise and dedication that make him a standout figure in the banking industry. As senior vice president and regional manager at Commercial Bank of California, Weiss has played a pivotal role in the growth and success of the bank, building strong, lasting relationships with clients and providing tailored financial solutions that meet their unique needs.

Beyond his professional achievements, Weiss' impact extends deeply into the community. He is deeply committed to supporting nonprofit organizations, particularly within the Jewish community, where he has dedicated his time and resources to causes that uplift and strengthen those in need. His ability to bridge the gap between business success and social responsibility sets him apart as a true leader. His personal commitment to helping others is also evident in his work with individuals recovering from substance abuse. Through his individual mentorship, he has made a meaningful impact on people's lives, helping them rebuild and find stability. This dedication to community service and individual empowerment underscores his genuine desire to make a difference beyond the banking world.

Weiss' remarkable career, coupled with his profound community involvement and commitment to helping others, makes him richly deserving of this year's Community Impact Award. His legacy in both the banking industry and the community solidifies his place as an example for others in the field.

SMALL BUSINESS ADVOCATE HONOREE

TAMARA GURNEY

CEO | President
Mission Valley Bank

As the founder, CEO and president of Mission Valley Bank for the past 24 years, Tamara Gurney has been a pioneering force in the banking industry, particularly for small-to-medium size businesses. Recognizing a critical need for financial servicing tailored to this segment, she established the Bank with a vision of providing personalized and accessible banking solutions.

Starting from humble beginnings in a trailer in Sun Valley, Gurney’s dedication and strategic leadership have propelled Mission Valley Bank to remarkable growth, expanding to three branches and increasing her team from just 10 employees to over 100. Under Gurney’s stewardship, the Mission Valley Bank provides comprehensive banking solutions tailored to companies’ unique requirements. She and her team have developed a full suite of business solutions and services that redefine relationship banking.

Her relentless commitment to serving the needs of local business has established Mission Valley Bank as a trusted partner to businesses of all sizes. With assets totaling $588 million as of September 2024, Mission Valley Bank stands as a foundational enterprise of the community, boasting three branches and divisions with a focus on specialized lending, accounts receivable, specialty banking, community development and merchant services, catering to the needs of over 6,000 clients.

COMMUNITY IMPACT BANK OF THE YEAR HONOREE

ENTERPRISE BANK & TRUST

With a strong belief that its role in the community goes far beyond banking transactions, Enterprise Bank & Trust seeks out unique and impactful ways to improve the communities it serves. This includes efforts from individual team members and larger companywide initiatives. All employees are encouraged to join together for company initiatives that include a recurring fall fundraising drive for local United Way chapters, the annual Pedal the Cause cycling event to support cancer research, and volunteer partnerships with organizations including Ronald McDonald House locations in Los Angeles.

Staying true to this commitment to giving back, our Southern California region has put an emphasis on partnerships with community and nonprofit organizations throughout 2024 and leading into 2025. Enterprise’s community efforts include affordable housing projects, economic development, diversity and inclusion, education, philanthropy, volunteerism and green initiatives that make a tangible and measurable impact in Los Angeles and the surrounding region.

To support these initiatives, Enterprise partners with organizations whose efforts and values are aligned with its own. For example, Enterprise employees regularly volunteer for Beyond Blindness, an organization providing early intervention services to visually impaired children, including speech and physical therapy, education programs and monthly family enrichment activities. Beyond Blindness serves approximately 500 children in Southern California and Enterprise has become a consistent partner of the organization. Enterprise also demonstrates its commitment to economic empowerment through key partnerships such as its collaborations with Working Wardrobes, supporting its career success events and assisting individuals with professional attire for job interviews.

MOST INNOVATIVE TEAM OF THE YEAR HONOREE

PALM TREE LLC

Palm Tree’s integrated approach to investment banking, financial consulting and operational advisory have led to it being known as “the modern M&A advisor.” Unlike traditional firms that focus solely on either investment banking or consulting, Palm Tree brings these critical disciplines together under one roof, offering a seamless, full-service solution for M&A, growth initiatives and value creation.

This collaborative structure allows Palm Tree to provide comprehensive, end-to-end support, from transaction execution to post-merger integration and operational improvements. The team’s multidisciplinary expertise ensures that clients receive not just financial insights but also strategic guidance and hands-on operational support, leading to superior outcomes and long-term value creation.

By fostering deep collaboration between investment bankers, financial advisors and operational consultants (which is not often easy to do), Palm Tree is uniquely positioned to help companies navigate complex transactions, maximize efficiency and drive sustainable growth. This innovative “one stop shop” approach delivers a significant competitive advantage to clients, making Palm Tree a standout contender for this award.

Additionally, Palm Tree’s commitment to innovation includes its use of AI, which is deeply embedded in both client services and internal processes. Leveraging proprietary AI structures and advanced data analytics, Palm Tree enhances decision-making, streamlines workflows and uncovers insights that drive superior outcomes. By utilizing AI, Palm Tree increases efficiency, reduces risk, and delivers tailored, data-driven strategies that create lasting value.

BEST NEW PRODUCT OR SERVICE LAUNCH HONOREE

POLAM FCU

A new commercial loan initiative has been developed POLAM FCU, led by the credit union’s president/CEO Jennifer Audette, a Credit Union Advocate of the Year for California, one of 20 nationally designated “Credit Union Rock Stars,” and the first non-Polish employee at a Polish Credit Union. Audette overcame the inherit desire that the credit union be led by a Polish individual with her enthusiasm, commitment to her members, and absorbing the Polish culture by attending countless events. When she isn’t volunteering at Polish events, she assists with mock interviews at her local middle and high schools in her area, has taught courses in financial education for children and women who have left abusive relationships. She volunteers at the California Credit Union League on a committee that assists small credit unions, she joined the local Larchmont Business Association so that she could assist the local community and made POLAM’s first commercial loan to a building a few doors down from POLAM.

Audette listens to the needs of POLAM’s members, and she treats each individual with respect and listens to their story. No loan can be denied unless she signs it. She feels that everyone deserves a chance, and she bends over backwards to try and assist everyone that wants a chance to change.

A specific need was presented – commercial loans. Audette and her team at POLAM have made it happen. In fact, POLAM is now working on its second commercial loan, also needed quickly by a member.

LEADERSHIP IN EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT HONOREE

JPMORGANCHASE

JPMorganChase and its divisional director of the Consumer Bank for California, Maria Garcia, prioritize employee development, fostering a culture of growth and opportunity. Garcia’s leadership philosophy, “I didn’t get to where I am by myself... someone helped me get there,” drives her commitment to mentoring colleagues and leaving a “ladder” for others to climb.

Garcia co-chairs and serves as an executive sponsor for several internal resource groups, promoting diversity, inclusion and professional development. Her involvement extends beyond the company, as she serves on the boards of NEW and the YWCA, further demonstrating her dedication to empowering individuals and advancing the banking profession.

JPMorganChase is committed to employee development and community engagement, ensuring branches meet client needs while fostering team growth and job creation. Garcia’s leadership philosophy emphasizes empowerment and support, creating a nurturing environment for both clients and employees. Garcia also leads by example, serving as a board member of NEW and the YWCA, along with her role in internal resource groups, underscores her commitment to community engagement and the advancement of diversity and inclusion within the banking industry.
