This list is not exhaustive, as privately held companies may choose to withhold information. Data was compiled from the Inc. 5000 list and information provided by company representatives. Companies are ranked by percentage growth from 2022 to 2024, with some revenue figures rounded or estimated. To qualify, a company must be privately held, for-profit, headquartered in L.A. County, in business as of Jan. 1, 2022, and not a division or subsidiary. Minimum revenue of $5 million in 2024 is required. Law firms, banks, and private equity firms are excluded due to nonstandard revenue reporting.

Information is accurate to the best of our knowledge as of press time. While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy and thoroughness of the list, omissions and typographical errors sometimes occur. ¹ Business Journal estimate.
This list is not exhaustive, as privately held companies may choose to withhold information. Data was compiled from the Inc. 5000 list and information provided by company representatives. Companies are ranked by percentage growth from 2022 to 2024, with some revenue figures rounded or estimated. To qualify, a company must be privately held, for-profit, headquartered in L.A. County, in business as of Jan. 1, 2022, and not a division or subsidiary. Minimum revenue of $5 million in 2024 is required. Law firms, banks, and private equity firms are excluded due to nonstandard revenue reporting.

Information is accurate to the best of our knowledge as of press time. While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy and thoroughness of the list, omissions and typographical errors sometimes occur. Please send corrections or additions to the Research Department at dbatra@labusinessjournal.com. ©2025 Los Angeles Business Journal.
